

Margriet Ruurs

author

Margriet Ruurs is the author of over 35 books for children and educators. She has a Master of Education degree from Simon Fraser University.

Margriet lives on Salt Spring Island, BC, Canada where she runs a booklovers' Bed & Breakfast called Between The Covers. She is a popular speaker at literacy conferences, including The Vancouver International Writers festival, and International Literary Association Conferences.

Margriet conducts author visits to international schools around the world, including Mongolia, China, Turkey and many other places. She is a book reviewer for The International Educator and writes a regular column for Canadian Teacher Magazine. Her books have appeared in New York Times and on bestsellers lists. They won many awards, including The Information Book Award, Moonbeam awards, the Crystal Kite award and many other recognitions. Several of her books have been named ILA's Notable Book for Global Awareness.

But most of all Margriet loves reading with her two young grandsons and playing with language.

www.margietruurs.com

Margriet Ruurs

250-537-2440

margriet@margietruurs.com

Salt Spring Island, BC,
Canada