

EMMA'S COLD DAY

Margriet Ruurs

Emma is freezing, what will she do to get warm?

Emma, the plucky but foolish cluck, is back and about to demonstrate one more time that being a chicken is not all it's cracked up to be.

In her latest escapade, Emma is one game hen with a big problem. It's the middle of winter and the chicken coop is freezing.

Determined to find out how the other farmyard animals weather the weather, Emma sets off on a snowy trek that almost ends in flaky, feathery disaster. Along the way she provides plenty of laughs and, once more, unwillingly saves the day.

Emma is some hen!!!

Lesson Ideas

Read the first couple of pages to the students. Emma sets off to find a way to stay warm.

Students will write a page for the book sharing their idea of how to stay warm.

Students will pretend that they have invited Emma inside with them to stay warm. They will draw four things they could do with Emma and write a sentence telling about each picture.

Emma is freezing so you invite her in. Tell what Emma and you will do! You will draw four pictures and write a sentence telling what you are doing in each one!
